Dear Parent/Carer

Annual Cultural Celebration: Haveli 'ch Hungama 2017 Beck Theatre – Saturday 11th March 2017

We are delighted to invite you to our annual cultural event to be held at the Beck Theatre in Hayes on Saturday 11th March 2017. We are privileged to have teachers and students/pupils who volunteer to perform at this annual event and we are honoured to have parents and families that give up their time to attend. We are looking forward to celebrating and securing the cultural values and traditions in the hearts of our next generation and are thankful for your support, as the event has proved to be very successful over the past 5 years. We are sure that this year will also be another great success!

The show will take you through a journey to explore our traditional and cultural values, reflecting on diversities within the generations and presenting these elements in the form of the most entertaining, energetic and vibrant stage performances.

Performances will include bhangra, giddha, comedy drama, musical performances and much more. It is a great opportunity for our staff and students/pupils to work together and showcase their talent throughout the Multi Academy Trust (GNSA and Nanaksar Primary). Everyone involved has put in a lot of time and effort in preparing the most enjoyable and exciting performances for you to enjoy as a family.

The three hour event will start promptly at 5pm and finish at 8pm. Tickets are available for either £10 or £15 each, which can only be purchased from the school. Secondary students can purchase tickets during lunch times in the Atrium area. Primary and Nanaksar parents can purchase tickets from the Primary or Nanaksar school offices. Please see the poster included for more information.

As in previous years, we sincerely hope you will continue to show your support at the event, celebrating our students/pupils who have become role models for the whole Punjabi community by setting the highest standards in education as well as cultural and traditional values.

We would like to thank you for your support and look forward to seeing you at the event!

Yours sincerely
