Joint Council for External Qualifications – Non-Examination Assessments/Coursework Procedure

Non examination Assessments/coursework are(is) defined as any piece of written or practical work which is marked by the school or an external examiner and which contributes to a GCSE, BTEC and AS or A Level award.

- 2. Students must read and understand fully the Notice to Candidates from the Joint Council for Qualifications about Non-Examination Assessments Regulations (attached).
- 3. Irregularities in Non-Examination Assessments/ coursework discovered prior to the student signing a 'Declaration of Authentication' will not be reported to the awarding body but dealt with as an internal disciplinary matter. The work will not gain any credit.
- 4. An irregularity in Non-Examination Assessments/ coursework discovered after the signing of the Declaration of Authentication by the student will be reported to the awarding body which may lead to disqualification from the subject.
- 5. Non-Examination Assessments/coursework must be completed on or by the agreed published departmental deadline (attached).

Coursework

- 6. All students are given the same and sufficient time to complete the work.
- 7. Students are given clear instructions as to the time and place for handing in the work.
- 8. Coursework must be handed in by the student to the designated teacher and not given to another student in school to hand in.
- 9. If the student is absent from school on the deadline day, a parent/carer or friend must bring coursework to school to be handed in to meet the deadline.
- 10. If it is impossible to deliver coursework to school, the Vice Principal must be contacted by phone for advice on the deadline day.
- 11. If coursework has not been completed by the deadline, the incomplete work must be handed in on the deadline day to receive a mark. There will be no further opportunity to complete this work for an improved mark.
- 12. Normally there will be no extension of a coursework deadline if a student is absent for a day or two during the period that the coursework is being completed.
- 13. If there are any special circumstances e.g., a prolonged absence covered by a medical certificate, there is the possibility of an extension, but this must be negotiated with the Subject Leader. A note will be given to the Subject Leader and parents to confirm the extension.
